VOL. VIII. NO. 42. CHICAGO, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1902. PRICE 5 CENTS.

MORE SARATOGA STAKES.

The meeting of the Saratoga Racing Association this year will attract wide attention. The richness of the stakes alone is a guarantee that they will fill with the best horses in training. Already all of the big racing stables in the east have made arrangements to go to the Spa in August, while many of the biggest owners in the west will send on their strings. For the Saratoga Special, the most valuable two-year-old event to be run there this season, these gentlemen have signified their intention of sending entries: August Belmont, S. S. Brown, P. J. Dwyer, Julius Fleischmann, J. G. Follansbee, David Gideon, J. B. Haggin, F. R. Hitchcock, J. R. & F. P. Keene, P. H. McCarren, J. E. Madden, Andrew Miller, G. B. Morris, J. W. Schorr, Col. James Pepper, W. K. Vanderbilt, W. C. Whitney and R. T. Wilson, Jr. The following list of stakes has been sent out, the entries to close Monday, March 10:

The Saratoga Handicap of $10,000, for three-year-olds and upward; one mile and a furlong.

The Saratoga Cup of $5,000, for three-year-olds and upward, weight for age; one mile and five furlongs.

The Champlain Handicap of $3,000, for three-year-olds and upward; one mile and a furlong.

The Merchants' and Citizens' Handicap, $3,000 added, for three-year-olds and upward; one mile and a sixteenth.

The Delaware Handicap, $1,000 added, for three-year-olds and upward; one mile and a sixteenth.

The Amsterdam Selling Stakes, $1,000 added, for three-year-olds and upward; one mile and seventy yards.

The Catskill Selling Stakes, $1,000 added, for three-year-olds and upward; six furlongs.

The Saranac Handicap of $5,000, for three-year-olds; one mile and a furlong.

The Huron Handicap, $1,000 added, for three-year-olds; one mile and a sixteenth.

The Seneca Selling Stakes, $1,000 added, for three-year-olds; six furlongs.

The Mohawk Selling Stakes, $1,000 added, for three-year-olds; one mile and a sixteenth.

The Saratoga Special, for two-year-olds, by subscription of $1,000 each, half forfeit, $1,500 in gold plate added; subscribers to name three horses by May 1 and only one starter to be named for each subscription; five and a half furlongs.

The Adirondack Handicap of $5,000 for two-year-olds; six furlongs.

The Kentucky Selling Stakes, $1,000 added, for two-year-old fillies; five and a half furlongs.

The Albany Handicap, $1,000 added, for two-year-olds; six furlongs.

he intends entering the racing game again. He has a small stable at Louisville and is looking for material to increase his string.

The entries to the stakes of the New Louisville Jockey Club closed last Saturday, with an increase of 150 over last year. Entries have been received from all the prominent horsemen in the west; also some from the east, among whom are William K. Vanderbilt and Lucien Appleby. This is the first time that these men have ever made entries in the west, and from present indications the spring meeting will be the best in the history of the local association.

Below will be found the number of entries to each stake:

Debutante Stakes.....	108
Bashford Manor Stakes.....	94
Juvenile Stakes.....	109
Clark Handicap.....	66
Frank Fehr Selling Stakes.....	117
Bluegrass Stakes.....	78
Kentucky Derby for 1903.....	137
Kentucky Oaks for 1903.....	98
Nursery Stake for 1903.....	202

The best horses in the west are entered in the Clark Handicap. This stakes takes the place of the old Clark Stakes, which the public have been led to believe would not be a fixture with the Louisville Jockey Club any more. It is the intention of the association to maintain this stakes in commemoration of Col. Clark.

This stakes has been made a handicap for the reason that it would attract a higher-class field than if the conditions were the same as formerly, as the winner of the Derby almost invariably won this stakes.

Jockey Burns may return to the scene of his many saddle triumphs during the twenty-one days' meeting at Montgomery Park, Memphis, commencing March 31. Burns is under contract to W. C. Whitney, but his services will not be needed during the major part of the Memphis meeting. Charles Elliston has invested in a number of high priced two-year-olds, which need the services of a finished horse pilot, and Burns will be prevailed upon to handle them during their engagements there. With Burns, Bullman, Lee Jackson, Coburn, J. Woods, and the other jockeys who will be at Memphis from Frisco and New Orleans, competition will be brisk for honors, a part of the program which was lacking last year. Burns has not been riding with much success this winter on the coast.

Few people in this country know that breeding of high-class thoroughbreds is going on in Ireland on a great scale. One of the most fashionable young stallions of the day there is Gallinule (by Isonomy), and his book for 1903 is full at $1,000 per mare, while for 1904 it is almost full. Gallinule is the sire of the Tragedy colt at Newmarket owned by Mr. Fox, hall Keene, and who, by all accounts, is looming up as a dangerous colt for the classics. It was only recently that Mr. George Voorhees, who had just returned from a trip to Newmarket, said that of all the young stallions who were being talked about as likely to replace St. Simon when he was called on to pay the debt of nature this stallion, Gallinule, was the most fancied by experts.

Entries for the stake events of the Arkansas Jockey Club's spring meeting, March 24 to 29, have been announced. There will be three stake races with added money, viz:

Arkansas Derby, to be run March 24, Capital Hotel Stakes, March 27, and Bob Furth Stakes, March 29.

The noted broodmare, Quesal, by Himyar, dam of Tommy Atkins, Maximo Gomez, Trumpet and other winners, has foaled a bay colt to Dr. Mac Bride at the Hira Villa Stud of Major B. G. Thomas, Lexington, Ky. At the Castleton Stud of James R. Keene the $18,600 broodmare, Field Azure, dam of several good winners and a richly bred daughter of Ben d'Or, foaled a bay colt by Le Var, son of Isonomy. Both youngsters are valuable.

OAKLAND FORM CHART.

OAKLAND, CAL., February 17.—Ninety-second day. New California Jockey Club. Winter Meeting. Weather clear; track muddy.

Presiding Judge, Joseph A. Murphy. Starter, Richard Dwyer.

Racing starts at 2:10 p. m.

Time, 1:15½.

Winner—Br. g. by Watercress—Pensa. Went to post at 2:14. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Botany far outclassed the field, quickly took a winning lead and was easing up in the last half. Sir Dougal went well throughout and was easily second best. Gusto's particularly bad showing was probably due to the difficult going and perhaps to staleness. He was driving to stall off Lemuel, which ran in improved form. No show betting on first three.

30712 SECOND RACE—3 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Maidens. Selling.

*Formerly Narcissus. Winner—Ch. f. by Crighton—Nellie Bell. Went to post at 2:34. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Gaviota, a good looker, broke slowly and came through in the deepest going, but stood a long, hard drive and was easily best. Little Margaret displayed a promising turn of speed and appeared to be winning in the stretch but was seemingly caught napping right at the end. Delsegno failed to stay after showing a good burst of speed. Elliston got off running, but shut up like a jack-knife after going the first furlong. The others were badly outrun.

Gaviota, show, 1 to 2. Little Margaret, show, 1 to 3. Delsegno, show, evens. Elliston, show, 2 to 5.

Time, 25½, 51½, 1:19½.

Winner—B. g. by Pardee—Caprice, by Leonatus. Went to post at 2:56. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Wyoming secured a lucky start, saved ground at the stretch turn and forced his way to the front at the end through sheer gameness. Sharp Bird broke flatfooted and the sticky going anchored him. He gave no evidence of his usual flight of early speed, but finished well and ran a good race. Clarando displayed speed and stamina unlooked for. Quiz broke slowly and tired right at the end. Ned Dennis, in going to his liking, ran in improved form. Marcato ran a dull race and seems to be in poor form.

Scratched—30665 Hungarian, 109; 30628 Prestano, 99.

Wyoming, show, 1 to 2. Sharp Bird, show, 1 to 3. Clarando, show, 4 to 1. Marcato, show, 1 to 2.

30714 FOURTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 25½, 52½, 1:19½, 1:48, 1:54½.

Winner—B. c. by Atlantic—Mary Stone. Went to post at 3:36. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Colonel Ballantyne's preliminary was discouraging and he delayed making his run until on the far turn where he flashed into the lead in a jiffy and was apparently a sure winner but under a vigorous finish barely beat Siddons. The latter broke very slowly and made up a tremendous amount of ground and was best. Urchin went well and was an improved horse. Nilgar was going well in hand for six furlongs but failed signally when called on in the stretch. The Gaffer was outclassed.

Colonel Ballantyne, show, 1 to 4. Siddons, show, 1 to 2. Urchin, show, 7 to 5. Nilgar, show, out.

30715 FIFTH RACE—7-8 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

30681	BARNATO	8	110	2	41	41	9	9	9	O'Connor	J J Shannon	6	6	6
Time, 25½, 51½, 1:19½, 1:33½.

Winner—Ch. h. by Midlothian—Loleta. Went to post at 3:51. At post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Dunblane was lucky throughout. Well in hand he forged to the front early and with a clear course appeared nearly a certain winner throughout. Bragg essayed to make the pace in the worst going and struggled along very gamely under a weak ride and was easily the best of the others. Galanthus, off well, showed plenty of speed and stayed well. Merops closed a big gap and but for hanging in next to the rail in the stretch might have been third. Graftor, off very badly, closed a tremendous gap. He was sore in his preliminary. February made up much ground and is worth remembering on a good track. Barnato tired badly in the sticky going and is evidently best on a sloppy or good track.

Dunblane, show, 1 to 2. Bragg, show, evens. Galanthus, show, 8 to 5. Graftor, show, 1 to 2.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The first colt to be unloaded at Memphis, Tenn., from the palace horse cars which brought the two-year-olds of William K. Vanderbilt and Thomas McDowell from Lexington was Allan-a-Dale, McDowell's reliance for the western Derbies this year. The crack colt stood the long trip without mishap, as did the others which composed two car loads of horses, arriving at Montgomery Park to be prepared for the coming turf campaign. McDowell stated that Allan-a-Dale would carry his own colors in all of his engagements, and not the Vanderbilt colors.

W. H. Landeman's horses, including Harry New, a three-year-old candidate for the Tennessee Derby have arrived at Memphis. They will be trained by P. Dunne. Alex. Labold, former President of the Oakley track at Cincinnati, is at Memphis, and says

Winner—Br. g. by St. Carlo—Partisana.
Went to post at 4:25. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won handily; second easily. Parsifal moved to the front in the stretch with ease and was particularly favored by the difficult going. The same applies to Alzura, which got away badly and closed an immense gap. Midnight Chimes ran in improved form, showed plenty of speed and stayed well. Hilary and Educate tired badly at the end. Loyal S. ran an unusually good race for him.

Scratched—30560 J. Boggs, 109.

Overweights—Alzura, 1 pound; Ulloa, 1.

Parsifal, show, evens. Alzura, show, 8 to 5. Midnight Chimes, show, 1 to 2. Educate, show, 1 to 2.

.....PLACE.....

Wyoming, 6-1; Colonel Ballantyne, 5-2;

were our best bets at Oakland yesterday. MENACE, 5-1, our advertised special at New Orleans, won easily. $500 forfeit if the above were not given. TODAY at New Orleans the Texas contingent will cut one loose on which one of the biggest killings of the year will be made. This horse worked three-quarters in 1:14 over a slow track and is in a soft spot. We never guess. We are on the inside and know a good thing when we see it.

We would be pleased to have you call at offices and examine telegrams to prove that we have correspondents at Oakland and all tracks that we advertised winners from.

Give us a trial and be convinced that what we advertise we do. We don't give eighteen races daily like other handicappers do.

NO HUMBUG OR GUESSING WITH US.

Winner—Ch. m. by The Jacobite—Lizzie M., by Bolus.

Went to post at 2:01. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Miss Soak came fast and strongly at the end and outgamed Tragedy in a hot finish. The latter ran a good race but faltered at the finish. Afra and Dutch Carter raced each other into exhaustion in setting the pace and were all out at the end. The latter showed speed and may win soon. Lillian Reed was poorly handled. Scratched—30653 Senator Sullivan, 114; 30675 Blocker, 109. Overweights—Josie F., 1 pound; Goldaga, 2 1/2; Clearfield, 2. Winner—Ch. g. by Little Minch—Ivy Benjamin.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Dagmar fenced well throughout and came away with ease on the flat. Bristol was given a poor ride. He was taken wide on the second turn of the field and given a weak handling at the finish. Mr. Rose closed up strongly on the flat. Miss Ransom pulled up lame. Dagmar, show, out. Winner—B. m. by Jim Gore—Red Veil.

Went to post at 3:35. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. To win Scarlet Lily had to be much the best. Brennan blundered badly with her, allowing her to be cut off on the first turn and getting her in behind the field on the turn for home. She finished strongly, wearing down the leaders with great speed and courage. Carl Kahle and Tom Kingsley were worn out in setting the hot pace, but both hung on stoutly. Andes lost ground on the stretch turn, but was right there at the finish. Scratched—(30623) Sir Florian, 109; (30684) Johnny McCartney, 95. No show betting.

Went to post at 4:42. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Choice opened up such a gap in the first part that the others could never get to him, but he was tiring at the finish. Deponan made up much ground in the stretch and finished very strongly. McWilliams ran a fairly good race, but was tiring at the end. Lindsay, on Hutch Miller, instead of attending to his business, was looking back over his shoulder while going down the backstretch and allowed the others to creep up on him. Lovable showed improvement. Scratched—23779 Owensboro, 103. Overweights—Choice, 1 pound; Eight Bells, 3 1/2; Beggar Lady, 4. Choice, show, 3 to 5. Deponan, show, 2 to 5. McWilliams, show, 7 to 10. GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Captain S. S. Brown, the Pittsburg coal king and millionaire turfman, has ordered his four-year-old colt, Garry Herrman, by Esher-Silk Gown, by his fellow, shipped east from Louisville to Peter Sumner, who trained Kinley Mack when he won the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps. Garry Herrman will be prepared for these classic events, and Captain Brown thinks his colt has a royal chance to win. Garry Herrman was the best two-year-old in the west of his year, and was early favorite for the big western Derbys, when he began to race and had to be thrown out of training.

With the arrival from Kentucky of the horses belonging to Talbot Brothers at Montgomery Park, the New Memphis Jockey Club announces that all available stabling room is filled. Talbot Bros.' training includes Wainamoinen, a prominent candidate for the Tennessee and other western oaks. A number of two-year-olds by The Commoner are also at the Talbot lot. The jockey club has commenced the building of several new stables for the accommodation of the New Orleans contingent of horses. Other improvements will also be made and the stabling capacity of the track increased in anticipation of the most eventful turf season ever had here.

John Mayberry, of Parkersburg, W. Va., who is training Charles Ellison's horses this year, has returned to Memphis from Hot Springs after a two days' consultation with Ellison mapping out a line campaign for Ellison's string. Mayberry announced that his horses would commence the season at Memphis and then proceed to Louisville and Latonia. He reports Ellison $30,000 to the good since he arrived at Hot Springs and corroborates the stories of the Arkansas poolrooms being hard at work.

Jimmy Michael will sail from New York on the Kaiser Wilhelm on Tuesday for Europe. He will ride as a jockey in Paris for M. Charron, the horseman and automobile expert. The "Midget" denies the report that he was to become a bicycle track owner or race promoter in America. Regarding his future plans the cyclist said: "In the horse world I can ride all my life, while in cycling I can at best hope to go on but a few years more. I shall give it just one more trial, and a thorough one, and then if I fail I shall come back to the bicycle. I have won $200,000 during my career."

Winnie O'Connor stands in a class all by himself at Oakland. He has a long lead over the other keys in point of winning mounts, with an average age of 26, which means that he has landed more than one horse first out of every four mounts. His record is all the more remarkable because he has been unplaced only 89 times out of 254 races. He has finished oftener in second place than any other boy, and in third place oftener than any other excepting Johnny Woods.

David Gideon is quoted as having said that the colt by His Highness-Nettie, for which he paid $10,000 as a yearling, is one of the most promising two-year-olds that it has been his good fortune to possess.
